25X1 1. Peenemuende: Concerning the explosions which took place at Peenemuende on 26 May 1952, it has been learned that sixteen Soviet trucks loaded with explosives were destroyed. The explosions spread to Test Bunker 33 and Block A II. Several unfinished remote-control rockets were detonated.

3. On 18 and 22 June, on the east bank of the Trave, a large group of women under the supervision of the Volkspolizei cleared a path along the border. In order to clear the prohibited area of the Schwedenschanze near Luebeck, twenty-eight dynamite charges were set off by the Volkspolizei on 18 June. A number of explosions were also observed near Campow on the Latzeburger See on the 22nd of June. Several houses were demolished.
